

GENERAL CONFERENCE
Fourth Period of Sessions
Mexico City, April 15-18, 1975

RESOLUTION 83 (IV)

Consideration of Article 23 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco

The General Conference,

Recalling its Resolution 53 (III), of August 23, 1973, whereby the request made in its previous Resolution 33 (II), of September 9, 1971 was reiterated to the Governments of Member States, in regard to their obligation to keep the Agency informed of all "the conventions, agreements and other type of arrangements, bilateral or multilateral concluded on matters concerned with nuclear cooperation between them or with third States in order to register them and notify the other Member States", and

Noting with satisfaction that the Governments of Member States have started to observe their obligations in the light of Article 23 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco, as it is reported in the Memorandum of the Secretary General which appears in document CG/118,

Resolves:

To reiterate its interest in the notifications of the Governments of Member State to the Secretary General of all commitments they may have acquired in an international level as required in resolution 33 (II) of the General Conference and do likewise, in due time, as they conclude commitments of this nature in the future.

(Adopted on the Twenty-second session, held on April 18, 1975)
