GENERAL CONFERENCE
Seventh Regular Session
(Item 9 of the Agenda)
Mexico City, April 21-24, 1981

RESOLUTION 139

Report of the Good Offices Committee

The General Conference,

Recalling Resolution 17 (I), of September 8, 1969, which created the Good Offices Committee, and Resolutions 35 and 36 (II), both of September 9, 1971, which extended its mandate;

Bearing in mind its Resolutions 48 and 49 (III), of August 23, 1973; 75 (IV), of April 17, 1975; 92 (V), of April 20, 1977 and 122 (VI), of April 26, 1979, in which the mandate of the Good Offices Committee was renewed;

Emphasizing that the incorporation of each country of the region into the Treaty of Tlatelolco is the maximum and most sincere aspiration of all the State Parties to the Treaty, without exception;

Having examined the Report of the Good Offices Committee, contained in document CG/205,

Resolves:

1. To renew the mandate of the Good Offices Committee, with its present composition, under the terms of Resolutions 36 (II) and 122 (VI).
2. To request the Good Offices Committee to re-double its efforts so that:
 - a) A solution may be found to any difference that exists or that may arise as to the interpretation of the Treaty of Tlatelolco;
 - b) The States of the Latin American region, whether signatories to the Treaty of Tlatelolco or not, may soon become Contracting Parties to the same, and Members of OPANAL;
 - c) The Governments of the States which have not yet ratified Additional Protocol I, do so as soon as possible.
3. To request the Secretary General, that in the same manner he has been doing up to now, to place at the disposal of the Good Offices Committee all facilities for contributing to the success of the work that said body has been assigned.
4. To ask the Good Offices Committee to report to the General Conference at its Eighth Regular Session on the result of its negotiations.

(Adopted on the 41st Session, held on April 24, 1981).
