GENERAL CONFERENCE
Eighth Regular Session
Agenda Item 11
Kingston, Jamaica, May 16-19, 1983

RESOLUTION 169 (VIII)

CONTROL SYSTEM

APPLICATION OF ARTICLE 23 OF THE TREATY OF TLATELOLCO

The General Conference,

Recalling its Resolutions 53 (II) dated August 23, 1973; 83 (IV) dated April 18, 1975; 101 (V) dated April 21, 1977; 118 (VI) dated April 25, 1979 and 143 (VII) dated April 24, 1981, in which it reiterated to the Governments of Member States the obligation already mentioned in its earlier Resolution 33 (II) dated September 9, 1971, that they must keep the Agency informed of all "conventions, agreements or pacts of any kind, bilateral or multilateral, on the subject of nuclear co-operation among themselves or with third States, which have been concluded, so that it may take the necessary steps to register them and notify the other Member States of them", in accordance with Article 23 of the Treaty;

Observing with pleasure that the Governments of Member States have fulfilled their obligations in that respect in the light of Article 23 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco;

Considering the need to be informed of all international agreements, treaties, conventions of whatever kind on the subject referred to in the Treaty of Tlatelolco, concluded by the Contracting Parties, so that the Agency may comply with the provisions of Article 23 of the Treaty;

Considering further that agreements of any kind, on this subject, concluded by the respective States or by public entities on the instructions of or in representation of their respective Governments, are included in the cases referred to in Article 23 of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America,

Resolves:

To reiterate to the Governments of Member States the need to comply strictly with Article 23 of the Treaty of Tlatelolco and Resolutions adopted by the General Conference on the subject.

(Adopted on the Forty-seventh Session, held on May 18, 1983)
