

---

XVIII Regular Session of the General Conference
Havana, Cuba, 5-6 November, 2003

RESOLUTION CG/Res.445
EDUCATION FOR PEACE, DISARMAMENT AND NUCLEAR NON-PROLIFERATION

The General Conference,

Bearing in mind that the Treaty of Tlatelolco is a contribution of significant importance to peace, disarmament and nuclear non-proliferation (Doc. CG/565 Rev.);

Considering that this contribution of Latin America and the Caribbean to international peace and security has been repeatedly recognized by the United Nations;

Having learned with satisfaction of Resolution 57/60 of the General Assembly of the United Nations, adopted on November 22, 2002, entitled "United Nations Study on Education for Disarmament and Non-Proliferation, as well as the adoption of the study itself and its recommendations contained in document A/57/124 of August 30, 2002";

Noting with satisfaction the efforts made by the Secretary General to disseminate in the media and academic institutions the Treaty of Tlatelolco and the principal aspects that refer to nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation;

Sharing the opinion that education for disarmament and non-proliferation has never been more necessary, especially with respect to weapons of mass destruction;

Resolves:

1. To endorse Resolution A/57/60 of November 22, 2002, of the General Assembly of the United Nations.
2. To encourage the Member States of OPANAL to promote education in the values of peace, disarmament and nuclear non-proliferation in the appropriate educational and academic media;
3. To urge the Member States of OPANAL to implement the recommendations contained in Resolution 57/60, entitled “United Nations Study on Education for Disarmament and Non-Proliferation.”
4. To request the Secretary General to prepare a specific proposal on the application by the Agency of the recommendations included in the United Nations study and aimed at international and regional agencies;
5. To also request the Secretary General to continue the work of disseminating the Treaty of Tlatelolco in media and academic institutions, promoting educational activities that will contribute to education for peace, disarmament and nuclear non-proliferation among the Member States, and to seek the cooperation of academic institutions in said States, also using, when applicable, the agreements and memoranda of understanding that OPANAL has entered into with other international agencies.
6. To entrust the Secretary General with informing the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the present resolution, as an expression of the desire of the Member States of the Treaty of Tlatelolco to recognize, affirm and guarantee the right to a culture of peace, disarmament and nuclear non-proliferation.

(Adopted by acclamation at the 100th Session held on November 5, 2003)